Dear Subscribers,

This will be the final issue of the "Peregrine Prattle".

Sometime after the first of the year, my husband and I will be moving to our "retirement-home" in Hillman, (in the northeast corner of Michigan's Lower Peninsula).

I will be taking with me the great memories of all you wonderful people and the "Soap-Story" behaviours of the peregrines throughout my 16 years observing these magnificent birds. These will be included in my, photo-illustrated book; "Falcon Follies" that I will have the time to write and (hopefully) find a publisher.

I thank you, all, for your interest and support and hope you had some fun with my up-close-and-personal look at the private lives of the peregrines. Over the years of observations, we have learned that they do, indeed...

...“Have-a-Life” (ask Sunrise)!

P.S.

I will continue to monitor the peregrines for nesting dates to set-up and assist with the banding of the young, and, to “keep-tabs-on” Sunrise’s escapades!
